

Tomato Paste

Tomato paste is an excellent seasoning and flavoring for a diverse range of foods, desserts, and snacks globally. This type of product is produced by removing the seeds and tomato peel during the cooking and concentrating steps. Due to the use of the best raw materials, Kian Trading Company produces high-quality tomato paste using modern and high-tech machines based on international production standards. Furthermore, we examine the final product after sampling process in the latest laboratories of company in order to prevent any packaging and shipping disqualified product. All the products will be sold, Considering the review and approval by the skilled experts in the Kian Trading Company.

Tomato Paste Properties

- Anti-cancer
- Sunscreen
- Containing iron and potassium
- Containing vitamin B

Tomato Paste nutritional value
Material Name	Amount per 100 grams
Energy (Calories)	18 kcal
Carbohydrate	3.89 gram
Protein	0.88 gram
Fat	0.20 gram
Water	94.52 gram
Fiber	1.20 gram
Sugar	2.63 gram
Cholesterol	0.00 gram

Brix amount of Kian products

Brix is the measurement unit for the tomato paste concentration. The brix amount of Kian Trading Company products is between 26 and 29 grams based on the international standards.

Tomatoes used in Kian Trading Company

Kian Trading Company uses the high-quality tomatoes available on the market in the production process. The raw materials provided in our company are completely organic and no harmful chemicals have been used in its production.

Raw Material Specifications

- An excellent fleshy texture and color
- A high-quality and completely organic product
- A smooth surface without taint

Tomato paste production process in Kian Trading Company

- Sorting and final washing
- Chopping
- Pre-heating
- Filtration
- Tomato juice storing
- Concentrating
- Pasteurization
- Can washing

Packaging

Kian Trading Company packages all its products in 400 g, 1 kg, 2 kg, and 3 kg glass as well as can packages and offers them to its customers globally. Moreover, Kian Trading Company offers all its products in bulk to the global market.

